

Gender and Sexism

If you had a choice would you prefer to be male or female?

What are some advantages of being male?

What are some advantages of being female?

In your opinion is it more difficult being male or female in your society?

Do you live in a patriarchal society? Do males tend to have more power than women?

In your own family, what is the gender of the most dominant individual?

Do you agree with the saying 'Man has his will, but woman has her way'?

What is your opinion on the recent focus on gender identity in some western countries? Do you believe society should recognize just male and female as genders or embrace the concept of other genders too?

What do you think is the impact of culture is on gender? Do you think males and females in your society act differently primarily for biological or cultural reasons?

Are men able to express their emotions in your culture or is it considered effeminate?

Are strong-willed women criticized more than strong-willed men in your society?